

Sales Person

Alberta's largest Modular/Manufactured Home Dealership requires a Sales Person. We offer top wages, full time employment, and benefits.

Why Jandel Homes:

Jandel has been an industry leader in developing and maintaining some of the following programs: pre-delivery site inspection and consultation, post-delivery home inspection, and a comprehensive response driven customer care department.

We are widely recognized as a dedicated and respected business working for the betterment of the modular housing industry. With sales and service centres in Edmonton and Grande Prairie, we are committed to offering personalized service to all our customers.

Company of Choice:

Since 1974, Jandel Homes has been able to provide a superior level of quality at a competitive price creating a reputation for value amongst western Canadian home buyers. We are a family owned and operated business and our objective has always been to operate with a commitment to customer satisfaction.

We are proud to say that is still our mandate after all these years.

We dedicate ourselves to creating a truly outstanding buying experience for our customers. We believe that a great relationship is one where everybody is satisfied and this is the cornerstone of our success.

We are a highly regarded company to do business with and an excellent place to work. Our focus and passion allow us to perform to the fullest of our capabilities.

Our objective is to set industry standards while exceeding our customers' expectations. We aim to be the number one choice for residential and recreational housing as well as for commercial structures in the modular built industry.

We have received numerous industry awards over the years. These awards reflect our continued efforts to keep our customers satisfied. 'Best in Service' [received 15 years in a row], 'Largest Volume in Sales' [earned 13 years in a row] and 'Best Show Home Display' are some of the awards that our hard work has earned us.
